Subject Reminder: Sportsmen for Bristol Bay Reception 4/17

If you're having trouble viewing this email, you may see it online.

The poster features a black and white photograph of two fishermen in waders on a body of water. One fisherman is in the foreground, casting a net, while the other is in the background, holding a fishing rod. A red outline of Alaska is in the top left corner, with a yellow star marking Bristol Bay. The text 'SPORTSMEN FOR BRISTOL BAY' is prominently displayed in the upper center. Below it, the date and time 'TUESDAY, APRIL 17 | 6-8 PM' are written in red, followed by the location 'HART SENATE OFFICE BUILDING | ROOM 902' in red. The word 'RECEPTION' is written in large, bold, white letters. A dark banner at the bottom contains the text: 'Enjoy refreshments and talk with prominent Bristol Bay stakeholders from across the country as you learn about the fight to protect Bristol Bay, Alaska and America's hunting and fishing legacy.' Below this banner, it says 'This event has been designed to comply with ethics rules'. The bottom left corner has the text 'S. LAURENT' and the bottom right corner has 'SAVEBRISTOLBAY.COM'. On the right side of the poster, there is a vertical strip of logos for various organizations, including Trout Unlimited, Alaska Sportsmen, and others. A 'No Permitted Mine' sign is also visible in the bottom right corner.
